OVERVIEW

Using the pump pressure, a sand filter removes suspended solids, colloidal particles, and certain bacteria. The sand filter is generally used as a post-treatment for chemically and biologically treated effluent water or as a pre-treatment for producing pure water.

FEATURES

- Low installation cost
- Easy to operate
- Low maintenance cost

PROCESS